EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997 he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened in April of 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 39 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and serves on the board of MLB Network. In addition, he is a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and Labor Policy Committee and most recently was asked to serve on the newly formed Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio -- 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. In October 2009 Montgomery received the Penn Alumni Award of Merit in recognition of his dedication and service to the university.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery serves on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and is the current chairman of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa.

In February 2007, Montgomery was one of Need in Deed's 20th Anniversary honorees in recognition of his many years of service on the organization's board. PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's long-time support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth. In June 2009 Montgomery and the Phillies received the Vision for Philadelphia Award from Philadelphia Hospitality. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony to his stature in the game. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions, and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; and the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006). In addition, he received the Bud Selig Award from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation in January 2010.

Born in Rochester, N.Y., on September 7, 1934, Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles recently wrote a book about his baseball career currently available in most bookstores or online entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball.

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 20 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally, David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born on May 15, 1964, in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each off-season in an externship program. 2009 REVIEW

2009 TEAM NOTES

NL CHAMPS

On October 21, with a four-games-to-one series win over the Dodgers in the NLCS, Charlie Manuel's Phillies won their second consecutive National League pennant, a first in franchise history. The series win made the Phillies the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1995-96 Atlanta Braves. It was the seventh pennant overall in Phillies franchise history.

In the World Series, the Phils faced the New York Yankees for the second time in franchise history (1950), and lost, 4-2, winning Games 1 and 5. Following the postseason, the Phillies were named Organization of the Year by Baseball America at the Winter Meetings.

THREE-PEAT

With a 10-3 win over Houston on September 30, the Phillies won their third straight National League East division championship (2007-09). It marked only the second time in franchise history that the Phils have done so, matching the run from 1976-78 under manager Danny Ozark. In 2009 the Phillies clinched the division in Game 158, which was their fewest games to do so since 1993 when they clinched in Game 157. The Phillies and the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim are the only two clubs to have won their division in each of the last three seasons.

THE FOUR HORSEMEN

Ryan Howard (45), Jayson Werth (36), Raul Ibañez (34) and Chase Utley (31) became the 12th foursome in MLB history – and first for the Phillies – to hit 30 HR each in the same season. The last team to do it was the 2006 White Sox and the last NL team was the 2004 Cubs. The 2009 Phillies are the third team in franchise history to have four players with 25 HR each, joining the 2006 and 2007 clubs.

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

The Phillies set three franchise attendance records in 2009, total attendance (3,600,693, 3rd-best in MLB), average attendance (44,450, 3rd-best in MLB) and sellouts (73). In their 81 dates at Citizens Bank Park, the Phillies had 73 sellouts (90%) and finished the season with 42 in a row. Of the eight games that did not sell out in 2009, only three were crowds of fewer than 40,000.

POWER AND SPEED

The Phillies were the only team in the National League and one of only four teams in the majors this season with 200 or more home runs and 100 or more stolen bases (Phillies: 224 HR-119 SB, NYY: 244-111, TEX: 224-149, BOS: 212-126). 2009 marked the 3rd straight season in which the Phillies had done so (2008: 214-136, 2007: 213-138). Individually, the Phillies had three players with 20 or more home runs and stolen bases for the first time in franchise history (Jayson Werth: 36 HR-20 SB, Chase Utley: 31-23 and Jimmy Rollins: 21-31).

HOME BOYS

The Phillies finished 45-36 (.556) at home in 2009 which was the most wins among all NL East teams. Over the first three months of the season (April-June), the Phils were 13-22 (.371) at Citizens Bank Park, but finished 32-14 (.696) from July 1 on. Their .696 winning percentage in that span led all NL teams and was 2nd-best in MLB, trailing only NYY (.778, 35-10). The Phils scored 408 runs (2nd in NL) at home for an average of 5.04 runs/game (2nd-best in the NL) and led all NL teams in HR at home (108).

ROAD WARRIORS

The Phillies tied the club record for wins on the road this year with 48, which was originally set in 1976. At 48-33 (.593), the Phils were tied with LAA for the best road record among all major league teams. The Phillies led all major league teams on the road in home runs (116) and led all NL teams in road slugging percentage (.439) and extra-base hits (285). Phillies pitchers posted a 4.02 ERA on the road in 2009 which ranked 6th among all NL clubs.

POWERBALL

The Phillies led the NL in home runs for the second straight season with a franchise-record 224 in 2009 (3rd overall in MLB). 2009 marked the Phillies' 5th season with 200-plus homers in franchise history and the 4th consecutive season. The Phillies led the majors in percentage of runs scored via home run at 44.5% (365 out of 820) and had seven players with double-digits in home runs for the 2nd time in franchise history: Ryan Howard (45), Jayson Werth (36), Raul Ibañez (34), Chase Utley (31), Jimmy Rollins (21), Pedro Feliz (12) and Shane Victorino (10). The club had a franchise first in May when Howard and Ibañez became the first pair of teammates to hit 10 or more home runs in the same month (10 HR each).

LIFE IS GRAND

The Phillies led all major league teams in 2009 with a franchise-record 11 grand slams (previous record 8 GS in 1993 and 2005). The 11 slams were hit by seven different players: Ryan Howard (3), Jayson Werth and Pedro Feliz (2), Raul Ibañez, Jimmy Rollins, Matt Stairs and Shane Victorino (1). The Phils were only the sixth team in MLB history to hit at least 10 in a season (last: STL in 2000). Additionally, the Phillies hit five grand slams against WSH in 2009, which tied the major league record previously held by the 1938 and 1954 Detroit Tigers.

STARS IN PINSTRIPES

The Phillies had five National League All-Stars in 2009 – the 5th time in franchise history that they had at least five – managed by skipper Charlie Manuel: Chase Utley, Raul Ibañez, Ryan Howard, Shane Victorino and Jayson Werth. It was the first ASG for Victorino, who was the 4th Hawaiian-born player to make an All-Star team. Ibañez (37), became the 3rd-oldest position player in major league history to make the All-Star team for the first time. When Werth was added (replacing injured Carlos Beltran) to the team, it marked the 13th time that an entire starting outfield had been named to the team and first time since 1995 (CLE). For Howard, it was his second career selection while it was the 4th straight selection for Utley.

START ME UP

Prior to the All-Star break, Phillies starters posted a 4.98 ERA (275 ER, 496.1 IP) with two complete games which ranked 14th in ERA among NL teams. After the break, the starters posted a 3.55 ERA (184 ER, 467.0 IP) which ranked 5th among NL staffs. Phillies starters combined to record 83 quality starts (min. 6.0 IP, 3 ER or less) in 2009 which ranked 8th among all major league staffs. Joe Blanton led the team with 21, Cole Hamels had 15, J.A. Happ had 14, Jamie Moyer had 11, Brett Myers and Cliff Lee had six, Pedro Martinez and Rodrigo Lopez had three, Chan Ho Park had two and Kyle Kendrick and Antonio Bastardo had one.

MEN OF STEAL

For the third straight season, the Phillies led the majors in stolen base percentage at 81.0% (119-for-147) and ranked 2nd in the NL in SB, trailing NYM (122). The Phils have stolen 100 or more bases in each of the last three seasons (2007-09). Since the beginning of the 2007 season, the Phillies lead all major league teams in stolen base percentage at 84.5% (393-for-465).

EXTRA, EXTRA

The Phillies led all National League teams in winning percentage in extra-inning games in 2009 (.689, 11-5). Only LAD had more wins (12-9, .571) and only NYY had a higher winning percentage (.700, 7-3). The Phillies won their final five games in extras and were 3-3 at home and 8-2 on the road. The .689 winning percentage for the Phils is their highest in extra-inning games since 2003 when they went 10-3 (.769).

PITCHING IN

Phillies pitchers posted a 3.65 ERA after the All-Star break (ranked 5th in MLB) after posting a 4.61 ERA prior to the break (25th in MLB). Among NL staffs in 2009, the Phillies ranked 6th in ERA (4.16), T-2nd in complete games (8) and T-8th in shutouts (9). From when Cliff Lee made his first start as a Phillie on July 31, the Phillies led the league in CG (6), were T-2nd in wins (35), T-4th in SHO (4) and had the 6th-best ERA (3.76). Phillies pitchers posted a season-best 26.0-inning scoreless streak from September 13-17. The starters posted a scoreless streak of 29.0 consecutive innings through those same dates which was the longest for the team since 1969 when the Phillies posted a 37.0-inning streak.

STREAKING

From July 8-21 the Phillies had a season-best 10-game win streak, their longest since 1991 when they won 13 in a row (July 30-August 12). That 10-game streak included a stretch of seven straight wins at home which matched the Phils' all-time record at Citizens Bank Park, last done in 2005 (May 19-June 5). During the 10-game streak, the Phillies outscored their opponents, 57-26, and posted a 2.41 team ERA (26 ER, 97.0 IP) while holding opponents to a .197 average (69-351). The Phillies went 20-7 (.741) in July, their first 20-win month since May 2001 (20-8).

MID-SEASON HELP

With the additions of RHP Pedro Martinez (7/15) and LHP Cliff Lee (7/29), it marked the first time in major league history a team had acquired two former Cy Young Award winners in the middle of a season. Lee's acquisition marked only the 4th time a team had acquired a defending Cy Young Award winner in the middle of a season (others: NYM in 1989-Frank Viola, NYY in 1995-David Cone and MIL in 2008-CC Sabathia). The Phillies had not had a former Cy Young Award winner appear in a game for them since Fernando Valenzuela in 1994.

MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS

The Phillies set some additional club records in 2009. Defensively, their .9873 fielding percentage, which ranked 2nd in MLB, eclipsed the club's previous best of .9867 set in 2004. The Phils also erased a 2004 club record by committing only 76 errors in 2009, five fewer than the previous mark set in 2004. Offensively, the Phillies grounded into only 90 double plays on the season which set a new club record (previous: 91 DP in 1935 and 1973) and led all MLB teams in 2009.

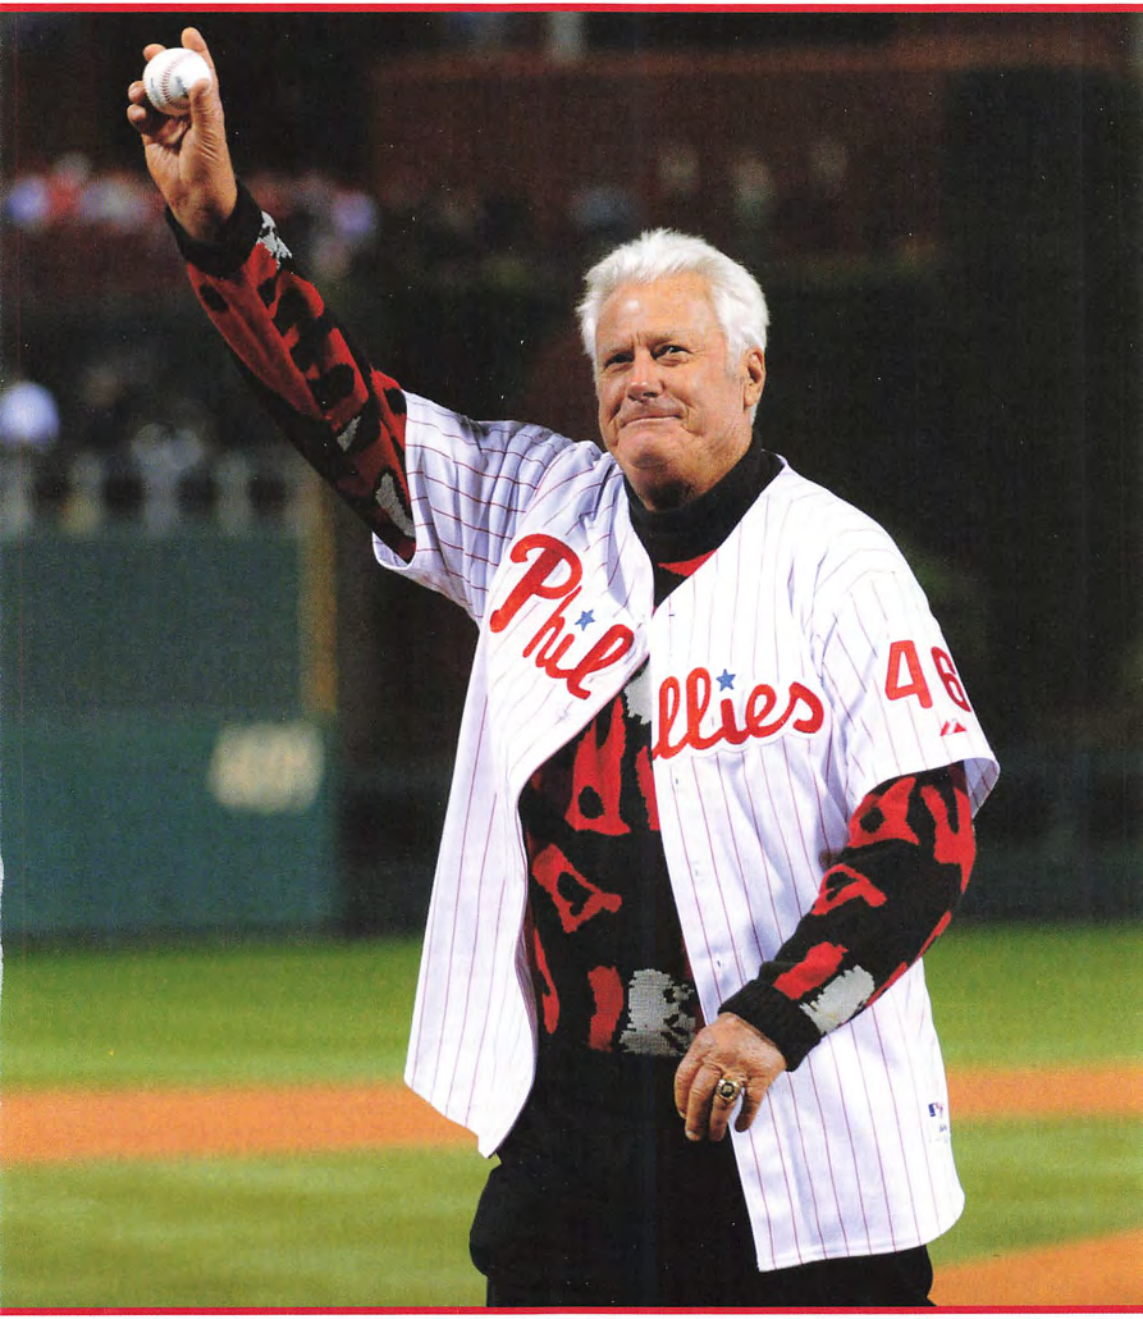
HISTORY



PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

PHILLIES FIRST GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which over 1,860 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 124 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was re-named Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

Last year, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. They won their division for the third consecutive year and eliminated the Rockies and Dodgers to win a second straight NL championship. Fan support reached an all-time high with 3,600,693, including a record 73 sellouts.

For the fifth time in 30 years, the Phillies played in a World Series, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, 4-2.

Homegrown talent was instrumental in the 1950 pennant-winners and the great 1976-83 era. That same formula has provided Phillies fans with the current run of excellence. Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley, Ryan Howard, Carlos Ruiz, Cole Hamels and Ryan Madson are all products of the Phillies scouting and player development department.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

JACKIE ROBINSON
1B ★ 2B ★ 3B ★ OF

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire #42 in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball... Robinson made his debut in 1947 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death... In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson... Former pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number, in 1997. (The 1997 rule was grandfathered, meaning a player who had worn the number could retain it until that player retired. Mike Jackson, who wore #42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

Davey Lopes' grounder kicked off Mike Schmidt's glove to Larry Bowa, who threw to first base for the potential game-ending out. Froemming called Lopes safe; TV replays indicated he was out. Game 5 - November 2

With their backs against the wall, the Phillies turned to Cliff Lee, who delivered an 8-6 win over the Yankees at Citizens Bank Park. Philadelphia jumped ahead to a 3-1 lead thanks to a three-run homer by Chase Utley off A.J. Burnett in the 1st inning. Utley hit his second homer of the game – his record-tying fifth in the World Series – in the 7th inning off Phil Coke for his second multi-homer game of the series. Ryan Madson came on in the 9th for the save as the Phils staved off elimination and headed back up to New York for Game 6.

Pedro Martinez took the loss for the Phillies, who could only manage three runs on four hits off winning pitcher Andy Pettitte.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

AWARDS

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

The 2009 winner of the Richie Ashburn Special Achievement Award was Dan Stephenson. "Video Dan" joined the Phillies in 1982 as a season-only employee videotaping player performances. Nine years later he became a full-time video operations employee in the baseball administration department. In addition to game performances of the players, he has written and created numerous Phillies video yearbooks, historical documentary videos and Phillies TV spots and serves as the executive producer of W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes, the weekly half-hour show that airs prior to each Sunday afternoon telecast. In addition, he won a Mid-Atlantic Regional Emmy Award in 2000 for his documentary, Phlashback, A Century of Phillies Highlights.

"Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their long-time manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), and Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) won the J.G. Taylor Spink Award. The award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

BROADCASTERS

CHRIS WHEELER

A Philadelphia native, "Wheels" is entering his 34th season as a Phillies broadcaster. A student of the game, Wheeler has done play-by-play and color analysis on both radio and television.

Wheeler began his Phillies career in 1971 as assistant director of publicity and public relations under Larry Shenk. While a member of that department, he was added to the broadcast team in 1977. In addition to his broadcast duties, Wheeler was named director of the Phillies' new community relations department in 1982. In 1991, he became the department's director of the Speakers Bureau, a position he held through 1997. Additionally, Wheeler was the camp coordinator for Phillies Dream Week from 1983-99.

After graduating from Penn State University in 1967 with a BA degree in journalism and broadcasting, Wheeler got his first job with WCAU Radio in Philadelphia as a news writer and reporter, while also doing traffic reports from an airplane. He then moved to WBBM Radio in Chicago, followed by a stint in New York with CBS Radio, before joining the Phillies.

Born on August 9, 1945, Wheeler is a graduate of Marple Newtown High School. He resides in Blue Bell, Pa.

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2010 season is Larry's 13th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for the Phillies' radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (33.0 IP), set in 1984. It is also the second-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.2 scoreless innings in 1911.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born on May 6, 1953, in Portland, Ore., Larry currently resides in Philadelphia, Pa. He has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase.

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and post-game host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. In 2008 the duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage for the second consecutive year.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and post-game shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born on March 6, 1972, in Dallas, Texas. A devoted animal lover, he organized the "Voices of the Phillies" fundraiser for the Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society (PAWS). Scott and his wife Lori currently reside in Philadelphia, Pa., with their two dogs.

PHILLY BROADCASTERS FOUNDATION

Formed in 2009, the Philly Broadcasters Foundation began as a means of honoring the late Harry Kalas. His longtime colleagues and broadcast partners - Larry Andersen, Chris Wheeler, Gary Matthews, Scott Franzke, Tom McCarthy and Jim Jackson - formed the foundation in the hopes of awarding scholarships each year to aspiring broadcasters. Instead of just a simple scholarship program, the foundation was also formed with a vision of future charitable endeavors designed to impact the Philadelphia region. In the coming year, the members of the Phillies broadcast team will invite other broadcasters from Philadelphia to join the foundation and form a charitable plan for the future. For more information on the Philly Broadcasters Foundation, log on to phillybroadcasters.org.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands
EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows
SKIN: Bright green fur
PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra-long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic received another honor in 2008 when it was recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). The 44-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 13th season in 2010 with the all-sports cable network Comcast SportsNet (CSN). CSN will carry 102 games, in addition to three spring training games, while The Comcast Network will broadcast three regular season games and four from Clearwater. CSN will continue to enhance the fan experience with increased clarity of the action, as it produces all Phillies games in high definition from its state-of-the-art mobile production facility.

WPHL/myphl17 is in its third stint as the home of the Phillies, having carried the club's games from 1971-82 and again from 1993-98. The station will broadcast three exhibition games and 45 games during the regular season, along with the 30-minute show W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes before every Sunday afternoon telecast. The show is hosted by Scott Palmer, the Phillies Director of Public Affairs and a former sportscaster and news anchor.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 150 will be broadcast locally, with nine other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for three games on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball (May 2 vs. the Mets, May 16 at the Brewers and July 18 at the Cubs), with the potential of two additional appearances during the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies family – from the players, coaches and their wives to the alumni, ballgirls and front office staff – takes great pride in giving back to the community. The entire Phillies organization teams up annually to host a variety of special events and fundraisers, prepare and serve holiday dinners to feed the homeless, and hold clothing drives, auctions and raffles. Additionally, game tickets, autographed memorabilia and merchandise are donated year-round to lend support to local organizations having an impact in the community.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization, awarding grants to a variety of local, non-profit organizations and charities each year. Since 1984, the Phillies have raised over $11 million to help strike out ALS which is the club's primary charity. Funds raised provide support for research and patient care for families in the Delaware Valley including those at the ALS Association Clinical Services Center at Pennsylvania Hospital. In 2009, the annual Phillies Phestival raised over $867,000 for the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association.

Events such as the Baseball 101 Clinic and Luncheon for Women raise funds for the Phillies Charities, Inc. discretionary fund which awards a variety of grants to organizations providing assistance to underprivileged and underserved children, educational and sports programs and those battling serious illnesses and disabilities locally and near the club's spring training home and minor league affiliates. Last year over $450,000 in grants were awarded to several local, non-profit organizations including the Bethesda Project homeless shelter, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, the Ashburn Foundation, the Police Athletic League, Women Against Abuse, Clearwater for Youth and the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Florida Suncoast.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year through visits in the community, special meet-and-greets with patients, charitable ticket programs and their own foundations. In 2009 six charity events were hosted by current players that raised a combined total of $933,000 for their respective charities:

Cole Hamels – Night at the Museum & Carnival, benefitting local schools through The Hamels Foundation
Chase Utley – All-Star Animals Casino Night, benefitting the Pennsylvania SPCA
Jimmy Rollins – Celebrity BaseBOWL tournament, benefitting the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern PA
Jamie Moyer – Celebrity Waiters, benefitting Camp Erin Philadelphia through The Moyer Foundation
Shane Victorino – Celebrity Golf Tournament, benefitting the Hawaii Children's Cancer Foundation
Ryan Howard/Victorino – Get in the Game bowling/billiards tournament, benefitting Philadelphia Futures

The players' wives also lend their time and efforts to support several charities. They meet with patients suffering with ALS and participate in the Phillies Phestival each year. Last year the wives raised over $90,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA to provide shelter and bring awareness to animal cruelty. Additionally, within the past three years the wives have hosted a variety of events, raising over $150,000 to benefit the homeless youth of the Covenant House Pennsylvania, homeless female veterans of the Mary E. Walker House, the Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation and Camp No Worries, assisting youth affected by cancer.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. Introduced in the fall of 2004, Be a Phanatic About Reading encourages children in kindergarten through eighth grade to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. During the 2009/10 school year over 100,000 students will read with the Phanatic. The program culminates with a literacy night at Citizens Bank Park honoring the 10 Most Improved and 10 Most Outstanding Readers in the program. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,000 children aged 6-13 annually. This season the club will celebrate the 10th anniversary of Teacher Appreciation Night. On this night 10 teachers, selected from thousands of nominations by students, parents and peers, will be honored on-field for their dedication to education and their students.

The Phillies are also committed to providing the underprivileged youth of Philadelphia the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball through the Jr. RBI and RBI League programs. The Jr. RBI/RBI Leagues, which provide equipment and uniform T-shirts and hats, are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 5-18) to play baseball and softball, but to also teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs engage more than 8,000 boys and girls yearly, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. This year the Baseball Carpenter Cup, a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball players, will celebrate its 25th anniversary. Its sister tournament, the Softball Carpenter Cup, was established in 2005. The Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament and the Bill Giles Invitational, started in 2001, is a college tournament for Division II schools.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and many charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2009 season fans took part in many collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local non-profits. Fans donated nearly 1,000 new and gently used books to benefit Philadelphia Reads and the Free Library of Philadelphia, helped collect hundreds of pieces of baseball equipment for Pitch in for Baseball, donated toys for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA and were a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed to Taller Puertorriqueno and the Children's Crisis Treatment Center.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM
The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS
Both clubhouses are open from 3:35 p.m. to 6:05 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.
